Leadership Jersey-From Sea to Shore: The Principles of Effective Leadership

16:00 - 18:00 | 09/11/2023 | Pomme d'Or Hotel, St Helier, Jersey

Join Leadership Jersey for an insightful and inspiring event featuring Rear Admiral Jude Terry OBE Royal Navy. In this engaging talk, Rear Admiral Jude Terry will share her remarkable journey from the seas to the shore and the invaluable leadership principles she has acquired throughout her distinguished career in the Royal Navy.

Rear Admiral Jude Terry's journey through the Royal Navy, from her early days to her current role as Director People and Training and Naval Secretary, has been filled with diverse experiences and leadership challenges. With a BSc (Hons) degree in Anatomical Sciences from Dundee University, she embarked on her naval career in 1997 and quickly rose through the ranks.

During her career, Rear Admiral Jude Terry has held various operational and staff roles, both at sea and on land. She has been responsible for logistics, planning, and operational support in different regions, including the Indian Ocean, the Arabian Gulf, the Caribbean, and the Far East. Her leadership was crucial in planning and executing the transition from Operation HERRICK to Operation TORAL, a complex task involving the drawdown of military capability and the closure of key bases.

Rear Admiral Terry's achievements also include her time as a Military Assistant to the Chief of Joint Operations, where she played a pivotal role in the UK's operational output. Her responsibilities covered critical events such as the end of HERRICK and the start and end of GRITROCK. She has also been actively involved in media relations, contributing to the Channel 4 documentary "Warship."

As Rear Admiral Terry continued to excel, she assumed leadership positions such as Assistant Head Joint Plans and Deputy Director People, demonstrating her expertise in personnel management and strategic planning. Her contributions to the Integrated Review, Spending Review, and other budgetary cycles highlight her dedication to ensuring the Royal Navy's effectiveness and sustainability.

In addition to the inspiring insights into leadership, this event will also raise money for the Healing Waves charity. They aim to enable individuals, despite whatever disability, condition and/or mental health they are living with, to participate in a few hours of water sports—providing each of them the opportunity to have their own unique and valuable experience.

Rear Admiral Jude Terry will draw on her extensive experience to explore how the principles of effective leadership remain consistent, regardless of the workplace or context. Her insights into leadership, strategy, and the challenges she has faced will provide valuable lessons for leaders in any field.

Don't miss this opportunity to gain a unique perspective on leadership and hear the compelling story of Rear Admiral Jude Terry's remarkable career. Whether you are in the military, a corporate environment, or any other industry, her lessons on leadership will resonate with you.

Reserve your spot now and be part of an enlightening discussion on leadership principles that transcend boundaries, from sea to shore.