Chamber Lunch - November 2024

12:00 - 14:30 | 06/11/2024 | Radisson Blu Waterfront Hotel

Book now →

As the Jersey Audit Office moves towards its 20*th* Anniversary in 2025, Lynn Pamment CBE will explain what the role of the Comptroller and Auditor General is all about.

Book here

She will talk about the work that she performs to provide independent assurance as to whether public funds are used effectively in Jersey and will comment on what she has found through her work.

As part of her presentation Lynn will explore:

- why Jersey has a Comptroller and Auditor General
- why the role matters to Islanders
- how she holds the States to account for its use of public funds

- how her role enhances transparency and contributes to improvement in public services; and
- her insights as to whether public funds are used effectively.

Non-Vegetarian Option - Trio of Scotch Beef:
A trio of tender Scotch beef served with creamy Dauphinoise potatoes, sweet shallot jam, roasted parsnips, and fresh watercress.

Vegan Option - Roasted Root Vegetable Pithivier:
A puff pastry pie filled with roasted root vegetables, accompanied by Dauphinoise potatoes, shallot jam, roasted parsnips, and watercress.

Who's presenting?

Lynn Pamment CBE

Comptroller and Auditor General at C&AG Jersey Audit Office

Lynn has served as the Comptroller and Auditor General (C&AG) for Jersey since 1 January 2020 providing independent assurance that public finances in Jersey are being regulated, controlled, and accounted for in line with the law. As C&AG she considers and reports to the States on the economy efficiency and effectiveness of the use of resources, improvements to internal controls and general corporate governance arrangements. She also appoints external auditors for the States and a number of other bodies. Prior to becoming C&AG, Lynn was a partner in PwC UK's Assurance practice, with over 30 years of public and private sector experience. Outside of her role as C&AG Lynn is a member of the International Public Sector Accounting Standards Board and is the chair the Financial Reporting Advisory Board (FRAB) to HM Treasury. She was awarded a CBE in 2024 for her public service work with FRAB.