

Personal Leadership Programme

3 Day Programme - 10th & 11th June and 8th July | 10/06/2025 | L'Horizon Hotel, St Brelade, Jersey

Join the inspirational 3-day Personal Leadership Programme to develop hands-on skills that can be applied in and outside of the workplace.

During this programme, delivered by David Crossland, participants engage in group discussion to explore leadership and management models that are as relevant to work as they are your personal life.

Run over a total of 3 days, the programme is split into a consecutive 2 day event, with a third day around 3-4 weeks later. Participants will cover how to:

- Develop more effective relationships both at work and at home.
- Have and manage more effective and productive meetings.

- Improve personal communication.
- Recognise and change disempowering language.
- · Self-motivate more effectively.
- Construct and use empowering questions.
- Take 100% responsibility and ownership.
- Focus on what we give and how it links to selfconfidence.
- Increase self-awareness.
- Recognise and choose their own leadership style.

Who is this event for?

This event is designed for people who wish to explore their own leadership style and its potential to create a culture of strong performance. Typically attended by C-Suite and Senior Level leaders, this programme is open to anyone wishing to develop a greater understanding of themselves as a leader – whether that's as a boss, partner, colleague, friend or parent.

What is the cost?

£1500.00 per delegate for the full three days.

How can I attend?

This is an in-person event at the L'Horizon Hotel. All refreshments and materials are provided. To book a space, email dave@odyssea.je Who's presenting?

David Crossland

Founder, Odyssea

Dave is the founder of Odyssea. After over 20 years' experience in Learning and Organisation Development roles across global locations, Dave created Odyssea to help build management and leadership capability within organisations.