

From Confused to Confident: Your First Steps in Data Protection

10am - 4pm / 4pm - 7pm | 01/07/2025 | Jersey
Office of the Information Commissioner, 2nd Floor, 5
Castle Street, St. Helier, Jersey, JE2 3BT

The Jersey Office of the Information Commissioner, the Island's data protection regulator, is excited to open its doors and invite small business owners, sole traders and start-ups to visit them at informal drop-in sessions next week to chat through local data protection law obligations and provide practical privacy steps.

The first of the JOIC's 'Confused to Confident: First Steps in Data Protection' drop-in sessions takes place at their office at 5 Castle Street on Tuesday 1 July 2025 between 10am and 4pm and the second drop-in takes place on Thursday 3 July from 4pm until 7pm. A Portuguese speaker will be available.

The sessions are open to everyone and there's no need to register.
