- Repairing and maintenance obligations
- Assignments and subletting
- Hidden costs and potential liabilities

When and why to seek professional advice

Who Should Attend?

Whether you're:

- Taking on your first business premises
- Relocating to a new property
- Renegotiating an existing lease
- Expanding your business footprint

This session will provide practical insights to help you make informed decisions and better protect your business interests.

What You'll Gain

By attending, you'll:

- Gain a clearer understanding of commercial lease agreements
- Learn how to identify potential risks before signing
- Understand where additional costs can arise
- Feel more confident when negotiating lease terms
- Have the opportunity to ask questions directly to experienced commercial property professionals

You'll leave with a stronger understanding of the leasing process and the confidence to approach your next commercial lease from a more informed position.

June Stead

Senior Business Advisor

June provides advice and support for a diverse range of both start up and established businesses and particularly enjoys helping businesses make sense of their financial modelling.

Born and educated in England, June has lived in Jersey for over 40 years. June is a serial entrepreneur having established and run her own businesses in property, retail and leisure both here in Jersey and whilst living 5 years in Brittany, France. June's natural people skills are reinforced by the professional coaching and mentoring qualifications she holds from the Chartered Management Institute.

The most important thing on June's desk is...

My mouse, because it travels thousands of miles helping me to do my job.

June's ideal holiday would be...

Visiting family in New Zealand followed by a week in a relaxing Ayurvedic retreat.

Not many people know that...

I used to drive 65ft, 11ton articulated trucks in the USA and Europe.
