Sponsored by Grant Thornton, this Chamber lunch will examine the wider value that high net worth individuals bring to Jersey.

The discussion will explore their contribution through investment, taxation, philanthropy, charitable giving, entrepreneurship, employment and the use of local professional services. It will also consider the work of those organisations that encourage and support individuals choosing to make the Island their home.

The event will feature four speakers and panellists, each offering their expert perspective, followed by a panel discussion and questions from the audience. It will provide a thoughtful and informed examination of how new residents contribute to Jersey's economy, community and future prosperity.
